

3rd ANNUAL ASH RIVER/KABETOGAMA SNOWDRIFTERS MEDALLION HUNT FEBRUARY 11 - 15, 2009

10 medallions worth $20 each will be hidden on or near area snowmobile trails. Medallions will be buried in the snow, hanging from a tree, in a culvert, etc. Hidden!

The clues will start on Wednesday, Feb. 11. These will be e-mailed to each participating business daily by 9 am.

One clue per medallion per day. The last clue will come out on Sunday, Feb. 15.

Turn them in at any business listed for $20 cash!

Medallions may be kept as souvenirs but no money will be awarded for them.

They must be turned in to be eligible for the cash prize.

Rule # 1. There are no rules – they're more like guidelines

Guideline # 2. No medallions will be in Voyageurs Nat'l Park

Guideline # 3. Medallions MUST be turned in before 6 pm, Sunday, Feb. 15 to a participating business to be eligible for the cash prize

Guideline # 4. Please notify a participating business when you have found a medallion and whether you intend to keep the medallion or collect the cash prize

Guideline # 5. Get yourself a map! Look for references to some of the clues on the map. Also keep your eyes open to landmarks, trail markings, advertising...
...all could help in your search!

And if you're not from around here, ask a "local" what some clues might mean!
